THOUGHT LEADER • EXPERIENTIAL KEYNOTE SPEAKER • AUTHOR

Rick Tamlyn inspires people to be their best. His compelling purpose is to encourage and assist others so that when they reach the end of their lives they can say, "That was a great life!" rather than, "I wish I had done more."

In 2001, Rick co-created The Bigger Game: a tool that inspires people from all walks of life to get out of their comfort zones and invent the lives they want. Rick is the author of Play Your Bigger Game: 9 Minutes to Learn, a Lifetime to Live (Hay House, Oct. 2013)

As a trusted advisor for Fortune 100 companies, small businesses, nonprofits, and churches, he has built a global audience, speaking and conducting workshops in more than 17 countries. His current bigger game is "to activate millions of people around the world to play their own compelling bigger games."

Rick is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC) and a Master Certified Coach (MCC) as designated by the International Coach Federation (ICF), and is a senior trainer for The Coaches Training Institute, a world-renowned coach training and leadership development organization.

He has a B.A. in Communications from Hope College in Michigan and an MFA from the University of Connecticut.

"Life is all made up! I want people to create the life they want without feeling 'stuck' or discouraged. When people find their compelling purpose, it becomes a magnet for action. I work with people to become their best selves at work, at home, and in their relationships."
